

案例

污水处理设备 (Sewage/Wastewater Treatment Equipment)

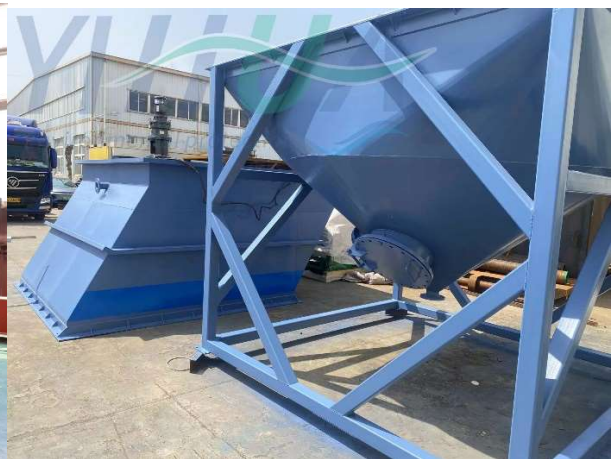

其它废水处理设备

运输图片 (Shipment)

(I) Enterprise strength

Yihua Environmental Protection was founded in 2010, and established Qingdao Yihua Environmental Protection Co., Ltd. in 2017 with a registered capital of 20 million yuan. The company has many outstanding professional and technical developers in the industry; there are 89 employees, including 13 middle and senior design technicians, 8 full-time office employees, 22 professional production and manufacturing personnel, 40 installation and construction teams, and after-sales service personnel. 6. Since its establishment, the company has established strategic partnerships with many well-known gold industries at home and abroad (the United States, Italy, Japan, South Korea, etc.) Well-known universities and scientific research institutions carry out scientific research cooperation, and have the reserve research and development capabilities of new technologies and front-end technologies.

The company's outstanding advantage is that it has the ability to undertake a package of comprehensive environmental treatment projects, and can provide users with reasonable technical routes and system solutions for project compliance and acceptance. From pretreatment, surface coating, drying and curing, logistics transportation, plumbing, power distribution control, to workshop purification, waste gas and wastewater treatment engineering, etc., it has successfully served the shipbuilding industry, petroleum and petrochemical, pharmaceutical, coating, automotive, printing, Batteries, metallurgy, building materials, electric power, high-speed rail, aerospace and military industries.

The company has professional after-sales service departments and personnel, lifetime maintenance of all equipment, 7*24 hours online technical support, 2 hours feedback response, and 8/24 hour service mechanism during the warranty period to provide you with excellent service.

Yihua Environmental Protection closely follows the national environmental protection policy, actively deploys development strategies, and creates cutting-edge innovation capabilities. At present, it has developed into a comprehensive service provider of environmental purification and treatment integrating R&D, design, manufacturing, installation and commissioning, sales, operation and maintenance, and is a well-known environmental protection technology innovation enterprise both inside and outside the province.

用科技绿化世界 以节能积攒财富

Greening the world with technology and accumulating wealth with energy saving

(2) Construction Cases

